

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is an unacceptable abuse of their license to use the public airwaves. As a member of the public and an owner of those airwaves, I do not consent to their being used to air one-sided political propaganda days before the most important election since the civil war.

Whatever happened to the days of "the fairness doctrine" and "equal time"? The public airwaves are for the good of all the public, not just the Republican party.

If Sinclair runs the anti-Kerry program they should be forced to air the pro-Kerry movie "Going Upriver." If Sinclair gets away with their planned blatant partisan abuse of the public airwaves, the voters such as myself will remember. We will hold the FCC responsible for this assault on democracy.
